This matter is before the court on the defendant Rodrigo Esparza's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [42]. Defendant needs additional time to finalize a resolution to this matter. Counsel for the co-defendant Jerrilee Barajas has no objection to the continuance. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [42] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for both defendants, now set for October 17, 2022 is continued to November 28, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and November 28, 2022 shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. A party may object to this order by filing an "Objection to Magistrate Judge's Order" no later than September 23, 2022. The objecting party must comply with all requirements of NECrimR 59.2.

DATED: September 16, 2022.

United States Magistrate Judge
